

Wishing You Our Lord's Peace and Grace This Lent.

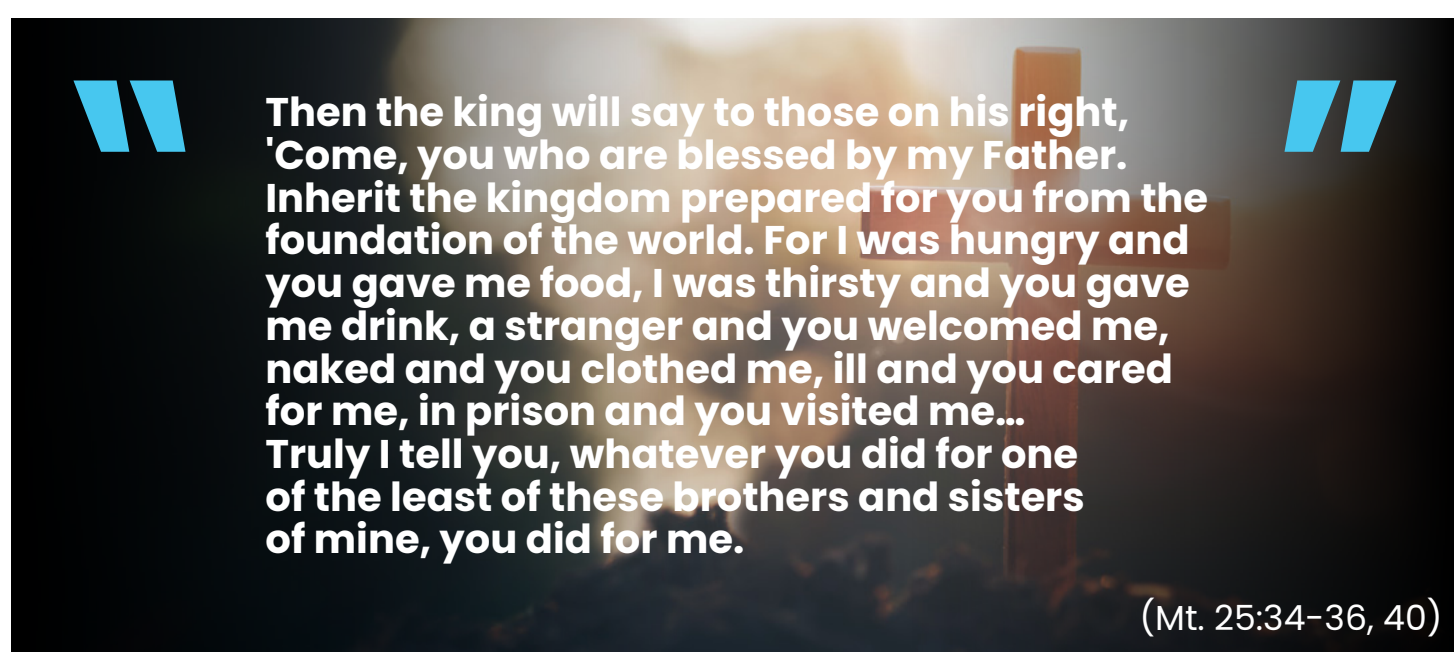

Dear Friends of the Napier Centre 4 Healing

The grace and peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

As the Lenten season is upon us, and we turn our attention to re-establishing the Lord as the centre of our lives – through fasting, increased prayer and special acts of charity – I thank you for your support and commitment to the Napier Centre 4 Healing (NC4H).

Lent, though, also calls us to live the love of preference for the poor, in all of their manifestations, for the face of Jesus is found in the face of the poor.

As we practice the disciplines of fasting, prayer and almsgiving that engender interior transformation, I ask that you consider donating towards the apostolate of the NC4H this Lent. Not only is your abundant gift a beautiful Lenten almsgiving, it contributes to the work of the Gospel itself in comforting the afflicted.

Keeping you, members of your family, as well friends, in my prayers. I wish you a holy and blessed Lent.

I remain sincerely in Christ.

Faithfully yours,
Fr Stephen Tully
Chairperson
